Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 4,767,416 to Wolf et al. (hereinafter "Wolf").

Wolf discloses an outlet portion capable of being used a nasal rinser having an outlet end 16/23, a connection end 18/26, a nozzle shaped channel 15/25 having a channel restriction section (towards the middle of the nozzle) and an expanded channel outlet section (distal end of channel). See Figures 1 and 2. All that is required for an hourglass shape is to have a restricted portion where liquid material would pass through. There is no requirement that the hourglass shape has a bulbous interior at both ends of the restricted portion.

In reference to claim 4, Figure 2 of Wolf shows that the channel is conically shaped at the connection end and has the largest diameter.

In reference to claim 5, it is considered to be inherent that the nozzle has a degree of flexibility.

In reference to claims 6 and 7, Wolf shows a receptacle 10 for rinsing liquid.

3. Claims 1-3 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 2,485,184 to Blackman et al. (hereinafter "Blackman").

Blackman shows an outlet portion that is capable of being used as a nasal rinser having an outlet end 68, connection end 52 and nozzle shaped channel 66. See Figures 1-4.

In reference to claim 2, the outlet portion 68 of Blackman is clearly enlarged.

In reference to claim 3, the outlet portion is balloon shaped.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 13 April 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the nozzle shaped channel of Wolf is not an hourglass shape. As shown above, there is no requirement that the ends of the channel restriction section are bulbous. All it needs is an area of narrowing diameter.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 3767

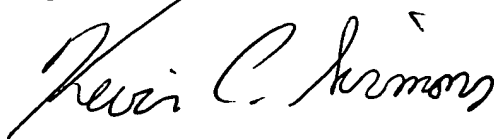

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
